My Notes

Well here it is, finally. yeah, i know, it's been 9 months since the birth of Cloudbreak, (for those of you who have been counting), and usually during a time span like that, more than one issue comes out. well i really have no excuse other than sheer laziness. oh well, it's mine, i do it when i feel like it. if you noticed, i'm trying to move away from the "formula zine", so you won't find any Lifetime or Ressurrection interviews this time around. please don't think i'm looking down on zines that are like that. i don't think any zines are lame for this. (hell, C.B. one was like that), all zines are rad, i just want mine to be a little different. O.K., let's keep things going here. another thing i want to hit on is the great surge of religion into the S.E. scene. i have one thing to say about it, stay out, the scene is corrupt enough without having a bunch of fanatics trying to convert the masses, enough said. as your reading this you'll probably notice a ton of ads, well i was completely over run with em, so i think i printed all of em. well i can't do this anymore i just don't have room, so please, anyone who does a zine or anything that has an ad get with me and we can work something out ( it probably won't be a problem, but please...). ok i'm looking for any Japanese animation on video, so if anyone has connections in that area, please contact me. i'm really looking for some Devilman cartoons. as far as music goes, i'm looking for the Integrity 7" on red, the Bottomline 7", any thing by Bratmobile and Velocity Girl, the Farside demo and the Mission Impossible demo. if anyone can help me out on any of this shit, please waste no time on getting in touch with me. well i guess that about does it for me, if you have anything you want to talk about, my address and phone# can be found elsewhere in this zine, please just don't call and wake me up. so with all this in mind, read on, into the depths of hell, and do so with caution. the new starts now.

About 2 years ago a show about a family moving from the cold, harsh winter wasteland of Minneapolis Minnesota, to the bright, sunny pleasant land of Beverly Hills California was debuted on the then still infant Fox station for all the worlds teens to start relating to.

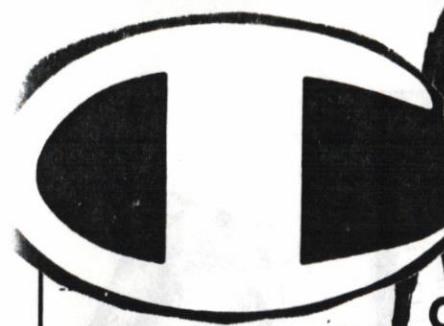

Beverly Hills 90210 was born, and little did it's creators know, this would turn out to be one of the biggest shows to hit television since Saturday morning cartoons. The show focuses on the Walsh family. A modest family who made the huge switch, and quickly found out that things are quite as easy in the fast paced life of Cali as they were "back home". First and foremost of this family are Brenda and Brandon, fraternal "small town" twin teenagers who are thrust into a brand new environment they know nothing about. But would this stop them from making freinds with the most popular kids at the now famous West Beverly High? Of course not: they came and they conquered! This brings us to the next topic, "the gang". Now this isn't your average group of high school kids, no these are Beverly Hills kids, so things are bound to be more complicated. First there's Dylan, the rebel surfer. A little daring, a little hip, this is who all the boys wanna be, and Brandon quickly became. Troubled by past and present family problems, Dylan is in constant struggle with himself, and with his relationship with Brenda under strain, things may get harder for our hero.

Next we have Steve and David ( for zine space i'm going write less about some and more about others). Two lads who are always on the search for the perfect "babe". Steve the more hunky is the step son of a famous TV actress, can never quite find the right tan or girl. David is the late comer. Never quite accepted into the gang, was always thought of as the "geek", but now is in deep relationship with Donna. This brings to Donna and Kelly. Two girls who have grown up with a silver spoon in both their mouths. Kelly is finally beating her "slut" reputation. I find kelly to be one of the more sincere people on the show. don't ask me why, i can't tell you just trust me. Donna, there's really not much i can say about Donna i just don't know that much about her, other than the fact that she hooked up with someone she once called a geek.

Finally there's Andrea. Quiet, meek little Andrea. Editor of the school paper, outspoken in her democratic beleifs, advocate of the "just say no" theory. Andrea is kind of complex, she seems to be on a "in with the right crowd" struggle, always wanting to, but never quite managing. For now i'm going to end with Andrea, but more about her next issue.

Ok, with all this analyzation, take a chance to watch the show once, and see what you think. With the new season starting you may find yourself watching the re-runs next summer.

GO VEGETARIAN

Eat With A Conscience

According to recent studies, a 50% reduction in meat, dairy, and eggs results in a 45% reduction in the risk of heart attack. Completely eliminating these products from our diet reduces the risk by 90%. Other studies have implicated animal products in cancer of the colon, breast, and lungs.

Cattle feed routinely includes shredded newspaper, cement dust, feathers, sawdust, "plastic hay" and processed sewage to promote rapid weight gain.

It takes 55 square feet of Latin American land to produce enough grazing area for a single pig.

In the United States, about 100 million animals a week are killed for food—in a year that adds up to about one for every person on earth.

EAT BEANS NOT BEINGS

When you sit down to eat, are you aware of the effect your food choices have on the earth? The cruelty, suffering and destruction involved in the system of raising animals for food stand in glaring contradiction to our hopes for a better way of life.

Each year, billions of cows, pigs, and chickens are enslaved and slaughtered to produce products which destroy our health, squander our food resources, and pollute our environment, while driving small farmers out of business.

The animal rights movement asks everyone to remember that the choices we make in our daily lives have enormous impact not only on the lives of other beings, but indeed on the destiny of life on earth.

My order was very small but even still it's an order isn't it? Well you can take that second press 7" I paid for and shove it up your ass you penny grubbing loser, do it, it's on me!!!!!! Either that or shove it down your throat and choke on every last inch of the bitter plastic and hope, if you die that your sorry rip off ass rots very slow in hell, because that will be the easy way out of this one you fucked up two bit piece of shit! SO unless I get that 7" very soon There will be no apology or escape from the price you'll have to pay for ripping off innocent people!!! The same goes for that fuck ass parasite at DARK EMPIRE RECORDS, if you don't send me my CONFRONT 7" soon, Your next.....I DON'T GIVE A FUCK ABOUT HOW TOUGH YOU ARE!!!!!! YOU GOT IT?.....THEN GIVE IT MOTHERFUCKER!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

the pre-ceeding was re-printed without permission from the ultra hardass who wrote this article for his zine Within Reach, from Hamilton, Ontario, (your not gonna destroy me are you?). i mainly wanted to print it just so you could read it and see what kind of morons there are out there. man, if you get this uptight over a couple of records, i'd hate see what you would do if someone held out on you on food or clothing. what do you do if mom and dad doesn't get you what you want for Christmas? FUCK. oh, and when you and Dwid/Dark Empire fight, call me and let me know how it went, i'm gonna be real anxious to see how that turned out.

There's a 'tail' or two in this fur fashion

By DEBBIE COREY

LAKEVILLE — Mervin Shaw could tell you a 'tail' or two about his luxuriant fox fur coat. He says he's been off "as much as $3,000 for his unit."

But the actions make a mockery of his unit.

He made himself a celebrity of sorts around the county last year when he sported the garment at numerous community events.

Made from eight red foxes and one coyote, Shaw's coat features several fox tails and one coyote tail at the hemline, as well as two fox tails at the neck.

He drew his "this is where it ends." tanned by a local furrier in Lakeville, and the business were designed and sewn by Bill Hopkins of Hawkshaw.

"I bought the mink tails from a second hand feller in Kirkland for $20," Shaw explained.

Smith Brook, and a crown lioned from 42 mink tails.

if no ...eat-eat... deserve to live, then why have'nt the hardliners taken out their parents? or how about their grandparents? or their brothers and sisters? according to the "no tolerance" rule, these people should'nt be around. i wonder how they'll do it? will they stab them?
shoot them? or in true animal liberation style, hang them by their feet and slit their throats? who cares as long as they get the justice they deserve, right? you know it's this mentality that bred so much hate and killing of thousands African-Americans over the past 150 years.

another subject that i want to talk about is headline's belief that homosexuality is deviant and wrong."homosexuality is obviously physically wrong and therefore is unnatural and impure. since sex was designed for creation, sex that cannot produce a child can only be for sense gratification". well sorry that a particular person has different views of his sexuality then your little movement does. have you ever thought that maybe this makes someone happy, and they feel good about themselves, you homophobic fucks?!

and lastly, as i mentioned before i am a vegetarian and very proud of this. i believe in the liberation of all animals, and hope that one day they won't have to slaughtered to fill our stomachs. but when the "hardliners" take a strong, deep movement and twist
into this hateful, self- loving bullshit, i'm very offended.
i feel that i may get thrown into their group of fascist, Hitler-esque, stormtroopers because i'm straight edge.

well on a final note, as i said before the "hardline scene is a very small and very dis-organized bunch of cry babies based in the Memphis Tn. area, please try to keep it there. hopefully it will implode on itself, and the people who choose to eat meat wont have to worry about getting beat to a pulp because they had a hamburger.

The Truth About HARDLINE

first off, i want to say that i nope all the hardliners in memphis do the read the following article, and then take a look at themselves, and think about the situation they've put themselves in.

the headline scene's slogan is "Earth liberation through vegan revolution". well this sounds like a pretty good idea. you take a great movement like veganism, and through a new a revolution you hope to create a better planet for everyone. GREAT!!!!!!! so why am i writing this article in condemnation of the whole "headline" scene, because it's the biggest bunch of bullshit i've ever heard of.

first off, how could a small(fortunately) group of morons, who claim to be so self righteous and intelligent, contradict themselves so much? i mean they say they want to end the suffering and killing of all creatures, yet they are willing to take the life of a person who chooses to eat meat. i am a vegetarian,(sorry guys, i'm not vegan. do you want to kill me now or later?), and as much as i would love to see all creatures live in peace, i find this philosophy very stupid!

Adding mouth, we didn't ask for your opinion... we're telling you the way it is, so sit back and listen. Your position is irrelevant to this situation. It's right, and you'd better come to that realization... Cos it's murder plain and simple. No justification for the taking of a life without provocation. You, throughout the nation, if the action was human you could face execution. there can be no other definition—meat and dairy production is torturing, it's killing for no purpose. for your ego, for the taste, three blood you're spilling. Belief is enlightening. A master race mentality of liberty for those with superiority. Your moral ordered society, is built on brutality and cruelty—where normality is destroying. Like the resistance to Nazi Germany we don't obey laws of barbarity. x killing mercy, if you're guilty you will pay. No chances to discuss it, you're gonna fucking hang! Terrorists and hoodlums just you fucking wait, if that's the enjoyment nothing yet. What did you think, this was a college debate? This is WILD, so stay the fuck out of the way, we're coming thru that door, and once we free this p the score—Guilty of murder, you'll face the new law.

THIS IS IT
no angry youth anthem, singing about teen-age rebellion. It's not the voice of a generation, we're not kids, this is no tantrum. Nor is it a re-affirmation of the status quo of for modern civilization and all it's barbaric traditions... This is the final solution to mankind's endless transgression. For the earth liberation—a Vegan revolution. 3 the confines and false divisions of alignment with color, age, or fashion. No allegiance given to any nation, to the earth alone is our liberation. Guided by the pure aim no innocent life for our existence, self reliant and free of the addictions that lead the weak on a path of destruction. we attained perfection in ideology—there's no others of comparison. The highest stage in mankind's evolution without question is veganism. And with the highest satisfaction, but be warned, if you refuse it, you'll face extermination. Cos it's no personal decision, nor a matter of opinion, when the choice you make destroys all life. "victims have been useless, so we've spoken for them—Now tired of wasting our breath, there will be no more talking. This is it, no second chances, take heed it's y better look yourself inside—the storm is fucking coming.

with tolerance, no more acceptance of your crimes. I don't care about your "freedom" cos your action restricts mine, and the rights of those you speak of as your way as you slowly self decay. Smacking a cash crop, I don't care if you die, but the animals treated—should they pay that price? Or the but to breath second hand's smoke you create. 'd those who are killed or maimed when you drink and drive as if it's a game? Or the third world peasants forced into... ade. To feed your weakness, another vice. To satisfy your hunger, you need "steak" THIS EARTH. LET'S

MATTER OF FACT

The following interview was done with M.O.F.'s bass player, Bull. Now, M.O.F. are not a big band, they're stationed in the New Jersey area, which means they have to hold their own against the super stars, they have no label backing them, they just play hardcore for the love of it, what else could be cooler? So read and gain some insight.

C.B.- who does what when why and how?
M.O.F.- A.G.- guitar and vocals(cause he feels like it)

Jeff- guitar and vocals(cause he was forced to)

Bull- bass (cause i have a burly goatee)

Chris- drums(cause he likes to fit things)

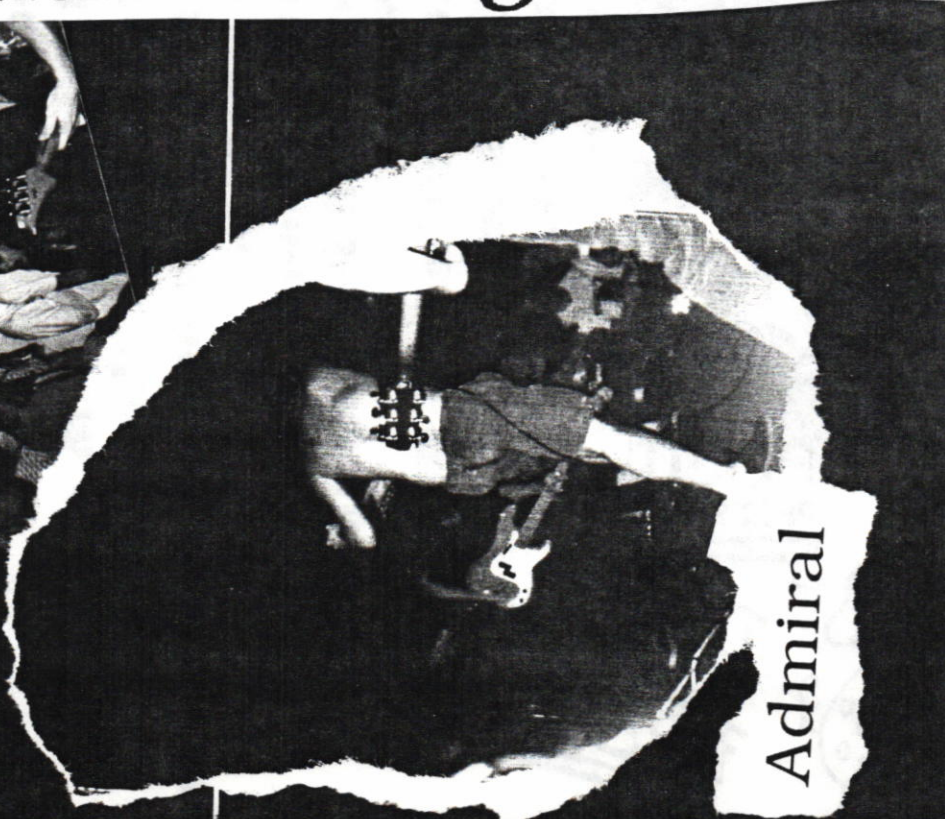

C.B.- you guys have a few line-up changes, tell us all.
M.O.F.- well, we kicked out our original guitarist because he ticked us too many times. then A.G. joined on guitar and Jeff switched to guitar also and Dan became our new singer. after a few months, Dan lost interest and we had a major lack of communication, so Dan left. finally we have our present line-up.

kiss hardcore goodbye

C.B.- the NJ scene seems to be the hotbed of hardcore at the moment. who do guys like or dislike? who's hot and who's not? tell us everything.

M.O.F.- we try to be friendly with everyone, it just seems that some people dont like us. i'd rather not talk shit about anyone cause that's not very polite. i will say that Lifetime's new shit and Point Of View are both hot as shit!!!!

C.B.- what are your songs about?

M.O.F.- our songs are about hurt and pain and suffering in the world. our lack of respect for each other, and for empty men. that's basically it in a turtle shell.

C.B.- is anyone in M.O.F. a veg.(etarian or an)?

M.O.F.- we're all veggy's and Chris is a vegan.

C.B.- are you guys really strong in these beliefs? do you think that the whole animal rights , vegetarianism thing is just a trend.

M.O.F.-i think we stand strong behind the movement. i suppose it is a trend to some, but hopefully it's not to most.

C.B.- aren't animals just stupid sub-creatures who deserve to be eaten?

M.O.F.- no, humans are.

C.B.- do you think that a person should be killed or beaten up because they want to eat a hamburger or steak?

M.O.F.- no they should just be schooled on how unhealthy, environmentally incorrect, and how inhumanely the animals are treated, then maybe they'll give a shit.

C.B.- when are you guys gonna tour with Vegan Reich?

M.O.F.- as soon as we get back from our tour with Skrewdriver

C.B.-what are your plans for recorded material? any labels planned?

M.O.F.- we have a tape available, that we just recorded, for a couple of stamps if anyone would like to write me for it. we're planning on putting out our own 7" after the summer, so please look for it.

C.B.- how about a tour situation, got any plans?

M.O.F.- we don't have any plans to tour yet, just weekend shows as far

C.B.- with this being the 500th year "celebration" of the landing of Columbus, how do you feel about the way so many millions of people make this genocide creator out to be a great hero?
A.O.F.- i think it's pretty fuckin' depressing that people still think Columbus was such a hero, and have no idea how badly he fucked the Indians and set 500 years of genocide into motion.
J.B.- is anyone in M.O.F. doing anything else in any other bands?
M.O.F.-i (Bull) play bass for a band called Point Of View who's 7" i coming out on Relection Records(and is real good). Jeff is singing for a project band called Deepwater who's EP will be out on Break Even Point records(from Italy). Adam plays trombone for a very interesting band called Goreshreckalectus (i hope i spelled it right-eric).
C.B.-what zines are hot right now in your area?
M.O.F.- Dear Jesus is the only one i can think of.
Feedback and My Contribution will be hot when they come out.
C.B.- any last words of wisdom?
M.O.F.- a wise man by the name of Nietzsche once said "The earth has

Fear of a Punk

recently i've noticed here in Springfield that crowd attendance has been dangerously low at the shows. at first i thought that maybe it was just because of burnout. well i don't think that it's at all, i think all you people are lazy fucks.

do you think that the bands that come thru here only do it for their health? or maybe they come thru just on a fluke chance? no, they come for you! they come because they love to play, and thrive on the energy from the crowd. but what do you fuckers do? you set on your ass getting drunk and fucked up at your house or wherever.

recently i set up a show with a few bands, two from Cali. and a local band. you know i tried to get the local band to play last so that people would stick around for the other bands, needles to say the local band played first, and after they played, i had to ask people to stay. and these were friends of the first band. they at least showed up, i don't think any of the so-called "punks" even showed up. wierd uh?

i do want to give credit to Dave for still setting up shows, even though none of you fuckers ever show up. i guess keep tryin' Dave, you must really be dedicated to this piece of shit "punk" scene.

in closing, i want to say that i think you people don't know what you have and probably are never gonna relize it. but i will tell ya this, when the music stops playin' you fuckers better start lookin' at yourself.
